

What people are saying about Cheryl:

"Cheryl's presentation was extremely well delivered and her style was one that kept the audience alert and enthused throughout the 2-hour time period. I found the information to be provocative and reinforcing."

"Cheryl provides an insightful, holistic approach that enables self-discovery, forward action and facilitates decision-making."

"Cheryl's ability to listen to her customers' needs, use her wealth of experience and knowledge, and then deliver a service that exceeds expectations sets her apart from her peers."

About Cheryl Rice

Cheryl is a highly regarded leadership expert known for enabling leaders to enhance their leadership impact. Since 1990, she has been working with Fortune 500 companies to improve individual, team, and executive performance. Cheryl's keynotes combine robust content with customized real world examples. Participants leave empowered to use their authentic leadership voice to achieve significant business outcomes. Cheryl has a special talent for helping female leaders maximize their leadership voice and impact.

Corporate & Association Speaking

If you are looking for a dynamic, inspiring, and relevant speaker for an upcoming corporate leadership meeting, annual conference or association meeting, your search is over. Cheryl's presentations are interactive, engaging and impactful. She draws on her corporate leadership experience, rigorous academic training, and years of real world consulting experience to generate memorable and actionable take-aways in her presentations.

Sample Speaking Topics

- From Inner Critic to Inner Champion: Finding the Confidence Within
- The Myths and Magic of Work/Life Balance
- Career Transition from the Inside Out

To book Cheryl Rice, please call 484-557-8846,
or send an email to info@chatsworthconsulting.com.

Sample Client List

- ARAMARK
- AstraZeneca Pharmaceuticals
- Campbell's Soup
- Children's Hospital of Philadelphia
- CIGNA
- Citizens Bank
- GlaxoSmithKline
- Main Line Chamber of Commerce
- Verizon

About Chatsworth Consulting Group

Broken teams, organizational silos, stalled change efforts, managers struggling with how to get the best from their staff, leaders who lack the skills and awareness to truly lead – these are some of the challenges you face as you take your organization into the future.

Chatsworth Consulting Group has been working with organizations like yours since 1995 to design unique solutions to address these issues. By partnering with us, you add our expertise and outside-the-organization outlook to your own knowledge about your perhaps too familiar issues. We help you recognize the strengths and development needs of your people and processes in order to achieve even greater results. Our strategies are customized to your specific needs, and we provide you with the tools and follow-up skills to keep changes and improvements alive.

What people are saying about Cheryl:

"Cheryl's program was so fantastic that we asked her to come back and do it again. In virtually no time at all, Cheryl created a safe and engaging environment for participants to discuss their challenges. Participants left with practical tools that made an immediate improvement in their work lives. Cheryl is one of our most highly rated speakers."

"Cheryl's presentation was very worthwhile and well-done. Her sensitivity to the clients' concerns was genuine and caring, combined with warm support and acceptance. I appreciate her approach very much."

"Cheryl creates a warm, accepting, non-judgmental environment that is extremely conducive to the growth you will experience. Cheryl carefully walks the group through readings and exercises, that opens each participant to the notion that change is not scary, but rather energizing, creative and achievable."

To book Cheryl Rice, please call 484-557-8846,
or send an email to info@chatsworthconsulting.com.