

Cheryl Almstrom

Cheryl Almstrom is an energetic and cheerful professional who brings a wealth of managerial and administrative experience to Chatsworth Consulting Group. Her dedication to customer service, professionalism and virtual business technology provides a solid foundation for handling day-to-day client management.

Cheryl has held key professional roles in a variety of fields including manufacturing, higher education and as a business entrepreneur. She is proficient in office management, bookkeeping and a broad range of software applications. As a champion multi-tasker, she enjoys taking on a wide array of projects, and most enjoys her daily interaction with colleagues and clients.

An active member of her church, Cheryl has held several leadership positions and has developed and organized community-involved mission projects.

Cheryl can be reached at (212) 537-6897 or at calmstrom@chatsworthconsulting.com.