

The ten questions

1. What is working well here?
2. What could we do better?
3. Where, if anywhere, are our gaps in communication, understanding, constructive conflict/disagreement, etc.?
4. Do we agree too often? If so, why and how can we learn to disagree?
5. Do we disagree too often? If so, why and how can we learn to agree?
6. What is our mission? (Are we all on the same page?)
7. What are our primary goals for 2009?
8. How can we keep the positive aspects of our culture as we grow?
9. Taking our growth as an opportunity for change, what would we like to change and how would we like to change it? What must we leave behind?
10. What must we have as a team to move strongly and successfully into the future? What must we create?
