

Denisse Vega

Denisse has been described as having a rare mix of technical skills and soft skills. In her more than 20 years in technology, she learned to lead and thrive in VUCA (volatile, uncertain, complex, and ambiguous) environments. As a coach, Denisse hosts sessions that have been described as deeply transformative, insightful, and fun.

Denisse combines introspection, alignment, and strategic connections to help the people who work with her unlock their true potential in a safe and warm environment.

She holds certifications and trainings including PCC (ICF), CPCC (Coactive Training Institute), Certified Agile Transformational Coach (AC-Agile), ORSC (CRR Global), and Positive Intelligence Coach – PQ. Denisse has had the privilege of working with prestigious corporate clients globally, empowering organizations across Latin America, the US, New Zealand, Australia, and Spain. Her clients include Mars & McMillan Intl Group, Grupo Femsa, Globant, Grupo Atlas Copco, BBVA, Banorte, amongst others.

Denisse's expertise extends beyond coaching, as she also is a conference speaker and trainer and has provided conferences and workshops on topics like Emotional Intelligence, Overcoming Change, Knowledge Management, Software Security, and Project Management. She actively advocates for Women in Engineering, fostering inclusivity and diversity.

Denisse lives in Hermosillo, Sonora, México and is fluent in Spanish and English. She is ready to partner with clients to help them explore their potential and enable their success.

Denisse can be reached at admin@denissevega.com.