

ROSY ELLIOTT

Rosy Elliott is a seasoned professional coach specializing in one-on-one leadership development and team coaching across multiple industries. Rosy is known for coaching leaders and organizations to identify their unique spark, align with their purpose, and commit to their potential. Her style is engaging, fun, and challenging – inspiring growth and in-the-bones learning. She is passionate about lifelong human development and the magic that can happen in groups when people are firing on all cylinders.

Rosy empowers clients to leverage their strengths and transform their challenges. She creates a safe and courageous space for clients to increase their self-awareness and commit to sustainable change. Clients working with Rosy are more genuinely engaged and collaborate more effectively.

After working with Rosy, clients report:

- Increased emotional intelligence and more effective leadership strategies
- Insight into innate strengths and how to leverage them
- Clarity around blind spots and potential weaknesses, and strategies to address these
- Greater understanding of what gets in the way of clear and effective communication

Leaders who work with Rosy develop a growth mindset and seek opportunities to adapt and learn.

Rosy earned her BA in anthropology from Barnard College and her MSed from Bank Street College. She has taught as an adjunct professor at Neumann University and Maryland University of Integrative Health. Rosy holds the designation of Professional Certified Coach from the International Coach Federation. Rosy is an Accredited Facilitator for The Leadership Circle™ and certified in the Richard Barrett Organizational Diagnosis Tool. She holds certifications through the Coaches Training Institute, CTI, and the Center for Right Relationship, CRR Global.

Rosy can be reached at relliott@chatsworthconsulting.com.

A BROAD BASE OF EXPERIENCE WITH CLIENTS INCLUDING:

Cardone Industries

DHH Department of Health and Human Services

DHS Department of Homeland Security

Endo Pharmaceutical

Ikea International

International Coach Federation, Philadelphia

Pennsylvania State University

Prana

Sustainable Business Network

ROSY ELLIOTT

REPRESENTATIVE ASSIGNMENTS

Department of Homeland Security, USCIS Coaching for Success program offered to leaders and supervisors.

Rosy worked individually with several cohorts of leaders to assess strengths and challenges using a leadership 360° inventory. As a result of Rosy's coaching leaders developed better management skills, increased their understanding of social and emotional intelligence for more effective communication, and were more engaged and engaging in their leadership.

Senior Executive, Pharmaceutical Industry

Rosy worked with a senior executive helping her navigate and successfully achieve a promotion. She supported the executive in the early stages of her new role and coached her in establishing a strong team. The client greatly increased her self-awareness in the coaching process and continues to grow her leadership by working on her intended impact and folding in feedback.

Senior Executive, DHS

Rosy supported a senior executive as she maneuvered through a series of challenging interactions with a peer. Coaching included a focus on conflict resolution, relationship building, managing difficult conversations, and group coaching for the parties involved. A positive outcome for both parties was achieved, and a new alliance was formed between the individuals.

Senior Leader, Media Company

Rosy worked with this senior executive to understand and hone his leadership style and develop his capacity to lead others with different leadership styles. This leader came to embrace diversity of styles and learned to maximize his team's potential through tapping into individual strengths. Through the coaching he identified his blind spots and greatly increased his resilience and agility as a leader. Productivity on the team has increased, and the agency is expanding under his leadership.